What makes this company different? The answer is quite a lot of things. You can begin with the quality of the materials. The finest granite and marble sourced globally and excavated provide a Foundation of excellence. The raw materials are given life by the sculptor as they are forged with imagination, skill and creativity. The design and creation of these headstones are characterised only by the talent, experience and dedication of Balgriffin Memorials. Limited only by the craftsman's passion, ambition and dedicated knowledge.

End without infinity is but a new beginning.

Placing Your Order In 5 Simple Steps.

With over 40 years working in the memorial trade we have erected more of the finest headstones throughout the cemeteries of Ireland.

1. Simply choose a headstone shape and style from our vast selection to suit your preference.
2. Pick the color of Marble or Granite that you would like to use.
3. Tell our team what inscription and graphics you would like on the headstone. A proof will be made for your confirmation.
4. The purpose of the proof is to give you a clear and professional layout of what you have ordered providing you with satisfaction and peace of mind.
5. We will then make your headstone. Once completed the headstone is generally gilded with 23½ Gold Leaf which is hand pressed and sealed into the stone.

Inscriptions.

Inscriptions should be laid out flawlessly and should be easily legible. This is a factor that is overlooked by many unqualified monumental companies. Fonts and sizing are as important as the color or shape of the stone itself. A professional monumental company will provide you with several layouts of what your Headstone should look like so you know what to expect.

Gold Leaf.

Always ask a monumental sculptor what kind of gold do they use on their headstones. Almost all good monumental companies use 23½ Carat Gold Leaf and not Gold paint. Gold Leaf is pressed and gilded into the carving of the stone. It looks the best and lasts longer than any other gold paint which is very cheap and fades away to resembles a faint mustard color.

End without infinity is but a new beginning.

One can really see the true expression of concept and design from the sculptor's heart and passion and not because there was money at the other end. This makes a big difference. Staying true to one's craftsmanship and vocation. You could take the example of the detailed cupping hands below the centerpiece Paradiso granite heart memorial. The subtlety of the rendered stone, delicately carved with precision. The master stone cutter always has the finished design vividly in mind. The finished headstone draws you in. You find yourself gravitating towards it's look and presence. In an acre filled with inferior products surrounding it such high standards are rare. It is very noticeable.

A "Gates Of Heaven" memorial stands statuque and serene. You are drawn towards it. Precision carved pieces, apex and concave in appearance. It is beautiful to look at and has been carefully planned out in concept and design. But there is something else. The coloured granite of Kerla Green or Tropical Green as it is sometimes known becomes impossible not to admire. Such a reflective shade of dark green with mottled flecks and veins of dark red forming patterns through the rich seductive granite. This is an exceptional standard of design and material coming together as one. A finished masterpiece dedicated to a loved one. A boundless dedication and a timeless memory. Infinity.
